• Enjoy an old-fashioned, family “Hoe Down” on Friday, April 17, from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. in the CYO gymnasium adjacent to our church. This square dance is open to all parish families and their guests. Cost is $2 per person or $5 per family. You don't have to be an exceptional dancer — just exceptionally humble and willing to laugh at your mistakes (and everyone else's). Light refreshments will be served during a break. For more information contact Bob Evanich at 614-5744 or bevanich@indy.rr.com. Sponsored by the Knights of Columbus Santo Rosario Council.

• Treasuring Womanhood, the sixth annual Catholic Women's Conference, will be Saturday, April 18, from 8 a.m. to 4:45 p.m. at the Indiana Convention Center. Speakers include Johnette Benkovic, founder and president of Living His Life Abundantly; Elizabeth Ficocelli, award-winning author of nine books; and Fr. Christopher Crotty, C.P.M., educator and retreat master. Mass celebrant and homilist will be our own pastor, Msgr. Schaedel. For more information contact Kathy Denny at 888-0873.

• Change We Can Believe In: The Office for Pro-Life Ministry is sponsoring a retreat for youth 14 years and older at St. Bernadette Retreat Center, 4838 Fletcher Ave., May 15-16. Fr. James Heyd, a priest from Chicago and Cardinal George's liaison to the Pro-Life movement, will conduct the retreat. Personal and communal prayer, Eucharistic Adoration, conferences on spiritual life and opportunities for confession will be offered. Cost is $25. Space is limited to 55 people. Registration forms are in the back of church and may also be found at www.archindy.org/prolife/index.html. For information call Sister Diane at 236-1521.

• Catholic Radio Indianapolis is hosting its annual dinner on Thursday evening, April 16, at the Riverwalk Banquet Center in Broad Ripple. Talk-show host Teresa Tomeo will address the negative impact that secular media has on our culture. Cost is $50 per person or $350 for a table of eight. For tickets and information call 842-6583 or visit www.CatholicRadioIndy.org.

Rules for fasting and abstinence during Lent

Ash Wednesday and all the Fridays of Lent are days of abstinence for Catholics. In addition, Ash Wednesday and Good Friday also are days of fasting. Here are the rules governing these obligations:

Abstinence: In the United States, all who have reached their 14th birthday are obliged to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday and all the Fridays of Lent.

Fasting: On the days of fast, only one full meal may be taken. Two other meals, sufficient to maintain strength, may be taken but together may not add up to a second full meal. The obligation to fast binds all between their 18th and 59th years.

urgies on Holy Thursday and Good Friday.

I am eager to write more about one highlight of my trip: I visited the Church of San Giorgio on Via del Velabro in Rome. According to our parish history written by Dr. James J. Divita, this basilica-style church between the Roman Forum and the Tiber River was part of our founding pastor's inspiration for our church structure. As I knelt there in prayer before the tabernacle, I placed all of you and your intentions before the Eucharistic Lord.

I picked up pictures and a history of the church while I was there. It contains several fascinating facts plus very interesting connections between "us and them." For example, the former rector of San Giorgio in Rome is now stationed in Fort Wayne, Indiana! More to come just in time for our centennial on May 9!

Have a good Holy Week. See you in church!

Of one thing I am convinced; of one thing I am certain: Providence never fails!

Faithfully yours in the Providence that will not fail us,

The soul that thirsts for God is first sorry in his heart from fear, and then from love.

Appunti del Parroco: (From the Pastor's Notebook:)

A Letter from Msgr. Joseph F. Schaedel, V.G.

Dear Parishioners,

Holy Week is here. Indeed it is the holiest week of the year. The liturgical celebrations of Palm Sunday, the Chrism Mass at the cathedral, Tenebrae, Holy Thursday, Good Friday, Holy Saturday and Easter Sunday are beautiful.

I wish more people would attend the Triduum Liturgies. They are so meaningful. And, no, they don't take all "that long"! Our schedule for Holy Week is on Page 2 of this bulletin.

Note that confessions are always heard 30 minutes before each Mass every day. Confessions will be heard between the two Good Friday services (approximately 4:30 p.m. to 6 p.m.). Confessions will also be heard after the 6 p.m. Good Friday service until all are finished, and again on Holy Saturday from 12:30 p.m. to 1 p.m. There are no confessions scheduled for the time immediately before either of the Solemn Vigils on Saturday.

The annual Chrism Mass is Tuesday at 7 p.m. at SS. Peter & Paul Cathedral, 14th and Meridian streets. Maggie Greene, our parish council chairperson, will again represent us and bring back the Blessed Holy Oils after the archbishop blesses them. These blessed oils are kept in the ambry located on the wall near our baptismal font. They are used to administer the sacraments of baptism, confirmation and the anointing of the sick.

Also during the Chrism Mass, Father Magiera and I along with all the other priests renew the promises that we made on the day of our ordination. It is quite impressive. Everyone is welcome. If you come, come early. It is standing room only.

Make special note of Holy Thursday evening's Adoration of the Most Blessed Sacrament after both evening Masses. As Jesus was taken away by the guards, He is "taken away" from the main tabernacle in church to the "repository." In our case, this is located down stairs in Priori Hall. We are invited to spend time with Him just as He invited His apostles to do in the Garden before His arrest (cf. Mark 14:32-38). Solemn Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament continues until midnight Holy Thursday.

If anyone wishes to come by on Good Friday, Priori Hall will be open for quiet adoration after Tenebrae Good Friday morning.

As is my custom, I will lead the Way of the Cross at two of our Catholic Cemeteries on

We are invited to spend time with Him just as He invited His apostles to do in the Garden before His arrest.

Good Friday: Calvary Cemetery here on the Southside at noon and at Our Lady of Peace Cemetery on the Northside at 2 p.m. All are welcome.

By next Sunday, the following folks will be full-fledged Catholics! Keep them in our prayers this week:

Catechumens are those who have never been baptized. Our catechumen is Megan Kelly. She will be baptized, confirmed and receive her First Holy Communion.

The Candidates (those validly baptized in another Christian Church) are: Kim Handwerk, Kelly Nicholson, Jodie Gassert and Ruth Mattingly. They will make their First Confession sometime this week, then be received into the Catholic Church, be confirmed and receive their First Holy Communion on Saturday night.

Emily Short, an active Catholic preparing for her wedding in September, will also receive the Sacrament of Confirmation. Will Kelly, husband of our catechumen, will also be confirmed.

I want to thank our parish director of religious education, Sister Diane, who since last September has faithfully worked with the catechumens and candidates to prepare them for this wonderful night. Assisting her this year were Mark and Michelle Overholt, devout parishioners who love the Church and her teachings. Everyone is welcome to attend either Holy Saturday Vigil Service. Each is beautiful.

A word about Tenebrae. This is a service of Matins and Lauds (the Office of Readings and Morning Prayer from the Divine Office) for Thursday, Friday and Saturday of Holy Week. Literally translated, the word "tenebrae" means "darkness." The ceremony is symbolic for the sorrow of these days. The schedule for Tenebrae is on Page 2 of this bulletin.

Our adult education series, Spaghetti & Spirituality, concluded on Wednesday. The crowds each Wednesday night broke all records.

It would be impossible for me to thank everyone by name who makes Spaghetti & Spirituality a success. The unsung heroes are the kitchen workers and cleanup crew: "Aunt Mag" Corsaro has been cooking pasta in that kitchen since before I was born. A tip of the berretta also goes to Vince and Linda Gatto, the Willen Family, the Barron Family, the Fords and several others who volunteer. Bruce Konicek pulls the whole series together. (Stewardship in Action!) Molte Grazie!

Our second collection this week is for the Holy Places in the Holy Land. These sacred places must be preserved. We also need to come to the aid of Christians who live in the Holy Land. Life for Christians there is rough. They need our help. If something does not happen, there will be practically no Christians left in the Holy Land — imagine!

I was in Rome for five days last week. I brought some small, blessed crucifixes for parishioners. They will be available after the lit-
